

TOWNS COUNTY ADVERTISER

Established 1922

YOUNG HARRIS, GEORGIA.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER, 29 1922

$1.00 Per Year In Advance

Young Harris to Have Roller Mill

Mr. Gus Townsend began last week the construction of a new building at the site where his old mill stood. He has torn away the old mill building completely, and now has underway a much larger, also stronger building, and he plans by the first of the year to have installed a complete, an up-to-date roller mill. We are informed by him that he purchased the mill which was partially constructed in Young Harris in the old Waldrup building. This mill was never put into operation and stands as good as new.

We all know Mr. Townsend and know that he is an expert mill man and we feel safe in saying that our people will get up to date service at his mill.

Cheese Factory Should Be In Operation

We are sure our people would like to see the officials of our cheese factory re-open this plant again, it has been idle for the past two or three years and has been greatly missed. This is a wonderful industry and manufactured a high grade product. Business conditions are bad throughout the entire country, and many industries have been forced idle, and we hope with the return of normal conditions many of our plants will resume operation.

Our people are affected less than any people in the world with the strikes, and different labor troubles, still we are hurt to some extent, but we all "live at home and board at the same place." And we have assurance of a good warm fire this winter, despite the coal situation. But we always feel better when everything is moving along nicely.

H. G. TANNER
Attorney at Law,
YOUNG HARRIS, GA.

W. E. Matheson

A Good Store

Sells up to-date, high grade merchandise in all lines.
Produce bought in exchange at best market prices.
If you can not come, send your order by mail.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

R. L. JACKSON FOR GENERAL MERCHANDISE

We offer you the highest quality at the lowest price. We appreciate every dollar you spend with us. We carry the most complete line of merchandise to be found in Young Harris, and we earnestly invite your inspection. Call on us for any personal service we can render you.

Make Our Store, Your Store

Store at Blairsville, Ga. Rt. 2 Store at Young Harris, Ga.
Address all communications to Young Harris, Ga.

Agriculture Show Given at Y. H. C.

The state college of agriculture in co-operation with the federal government, has a large moving picture out fit in Towns and Union counties this week. Mr. Henry Welch, Mrs. Bessie Wood and Miss Stella Edwards are helping in this work. On last Monday night Mr. Stone and Mrs. Berrong, were with these people at their meeting at Macedonia church, and on Tuesday night they had the show at Bell Creek, and on Wednesday night the out-fit was carried to Brass-town school. In addition to the above named people Dr. R. T. Coleman of Young Harris, and Mrs. Ryals of Blairsville, were with this party.

Beginning about 9 o'clock on Wednesday night these pictures were put on in the college chapel and was attended by the student body and a large number of the citizens, being at such a late hour some of the people became tired waiting and went home. The pictures were very interesting as well as instructive. The reels shown of the Union Stock Yards of Chicago, the sugar industries of Cuba, scenes of the mountains and a comedy reel of Charlie Chaplin.

Mrs. Woods gave splendid talk on the splendid work they are doing through our country.

The party went into Union where they are booked for several shows.

More Road Work Begun

Blairsville, Ga., -- Dirt has been broken by C. M. Lyle, contractor, on 3 1-2 miles of the round project beginning at Neel or Frogtown gap, on the top of the Blue Ridge mountain, running north in the direction of Blairsville. The construction of a good road across the Blue Ridge mountain will remove one of the natural obstructions to travel in this part of the state.

Thos. E. Watson Dead

Thomas E. Watson, junior senator from Georgia, and nationally known political figure, is dead.

Senator Watson died unexpectedly in Washington at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning. Acute bronchial asthma and heart failure caused his death. He became dangerously ill about midnight, and despite the efforts of his physicians, passed away a few hours later. The body accompanied by a committee representing the senate and house will be sent to the senator's home at Thomson.

Senator Watson's body will not be taken to Atlanta to lie in state at the capitol. A suggestion that this be done was made by several of his friends, but it was later determined to take the body direct to Thompson.

Major Chas. M. McGregor, close personal friend of Senator Watson, said this morning, Mrs. Watson who is at the Watson home was bearing up heroically under the blow, altho the news of her husband's death was a great severe shock.

W. W. Mundy For President of Senate

With the good people of the 38th senatorial district we rejoice that Col. W. W. Mundy, of Cedartown, has been unanimously elected Senator from that district. He has twice served Polk county as Representative in the House, and his election Wednesday will give him a second term in the Senate. Even time he has had no opposition. His splendid legislative record qualifies him as an aspirant to the position of the Senate. -Rone News.

A. F. & A. M.

STEPHENS LODGE No. 414
Young Harris, Ga.

Meets every fourth Saturday night in each month.

H. G. Tanner, W. M.
W. H. Dean, Secty.

CANNOT HOARD TIME

IN A certain time you can make a certain amount of money. You can put the money away for years later, but you can't put the time away.

Money, called by the economists frozen labor, might also be called frozen time.

But time is more than money. It can be turned into many things that can be stored away—education, cultivated taste, pleasant and profitable memories. But time itself you cannot hoard. You must use it as it passes, or it is gone forever.

Time spent in recreation is not wasted, unless you spend more than a due allowance for recreation.

But time spent in absolute idleness, or in activities that are worse than idle, is sheer criminal waste.

If you could go back over your life and gather back the hours that have never been improved, you would still have enough time to do great things.

But those hours are gone.

You can only, as Shakespeare says, "regret your dear time's waste" and resolve to waste less of it in the future.

Many men whose time had never been turned to account until they were past forty have still had enough left to accomplish great things in the world. But these are the most sincere mourners for the years that might have been utilized.

If you will begin today to bear in mind that time cannot be hoarded, and if every hour of it is converted into something that can be hoarded, you may lay the foundation for a fortune. You will certainly lay the foundation for happiness by and by.

Count your hours, and allot each one to some task or to some profitable recreation. See that none of them slip by. They are as water through a mill, which if sent over the wheel creates valuable energy, but which spilled over the dam is gone forever.

(Copyright.)

A Priceless Service Freely Given to Ga

On the first of June, 1921, over 31,000 Georgia Methodists made pledges amounting to over $1,500,000.00 for their schools located in this state and giving Christian Education to Georgia boys and girls. This is a part of a voluntary service to our commonwealth which this denomination renders.

Of the Methodist Schools; Emory University alone gives in free tuition annually, an amount that would require $1,363,051.33, invested at six per cent to produce. It is the free service of Christian love for which every Georgia citizen should be grateful.

Drs. Elam F. Dempsey and J. A. Harmon, who are in charge of the Christian Education Movement for the North and South Georgia Conferences, have named September 24 October 1, "Clean up week" to collect all past due, first year pledges to this $1,500,000. Bishops W. B. Murrah and W. N. Ainsworth join them in fervent pleas to Georgia methodists and success seems assured.

This paper rejoices at the success already achieved and wishes for this effort, complete victory.

Godless education set the world afire. To save the world, save the child and to save the child, give him Christian Education. These churchmen are wise, for unless we Christianize our education will paganize us.

Roy Nichols dies After short illness

Mr. Roy Nichols, of this place died Monday morning at one o'clock.

The physician who attended him states that he had typhoid and pneumonia fever.

He has left his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols, six brothers, Cicero, Edd, Oliver, Loy and Saul Nichols, and many friends to mourn.

The services were conducted by Rev. T. K. Jackson, Interment at Union Cemetery.

West Union, sure will miss him in Sunday School, as he was loved by everybody.

We all hope to meet him in heaven. Written by two broken hearted cousins.

Republican Executive Committee to Meet

To the Members of the Republican Executive Committee of the Ninth Congressional District of Georgia:

A meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of the Ninth Congressional District is hereby called to meet at the Courthouse at Jasper, Ga., at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Saturday, September 30th, 1922, for the purpose of nominating a candidate 68th Congress, to be voted for November 7th, 1922, and to transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting. This Sept. 20, 1922.

T. A. Chastain, . . . Chairman,
W. K. Ruce . . . Secretary.

HOOPER
HOTEL
Hiawasse, G

Rates $2.00 per day

Call Telephone 2-1212

SCHOOL DAYS

A DOUBLE EXPOSURE

JUNE TIME

SINGIN' o' June, when the roses blow;
Liltin' a song when the sun hangs low;
Whistlin' away
Through th' livelong day—
Singin' an' whistlin' a merry tune
To the rosiest month of them all—
That's June.

Watchin' the clouds as they hasten by,
Catchin' the gleam of the bright blue sky;
Lazyn' round
On th' sun-kissed ground—
Hearin' th' wind through the woodland croon
Her songs to the rarest of months—
That's June.

Off through th' meadows cool an'
sweet,
Where th' violets bloom in their dim retreat;
Dreamin' dreams
By the purlin' streams,
As they hasten by with their rhythmic rune
To the rosiest, fairest month—that's June.

Home at eve when the moon hangs
low
And the sky gleams bright with a silver glow;
Just lazyn' there
In the old arm chair
A watchin' th' man who lives in the moon
And laughs at th' fairest of months—
that's June.

(Copyright.)

Buy It Either
Way
Tablets or

PE-RU
A Great Medicine

Mrs. M. J. Riley, R. R. No. 1, York, Texas, writes:
"I have used Pe-Ru and know it for colds, coughs and croup. It cures and I do not suffer. I would not be without Pe-Ru. It is a great medicine."

During the last fifty years, Pe-Ru has been looked upon as the reliable medicine for colds, coughs and croup. It cures the nose and throat, stomach, bowels or other organs.
By keeping Pe-Ru in the house for emergencies, serious sickness may frequently be prevented. Use it after the grip or Spanish Flu.

Sold Everywhere

Our Best Offer Read This Proposition Over

The Tri-Weekly Constitution

ATLANTA, GA.

And The

Towns County Advertiser

Both will be mailed you for only

$1.50 Per. Year

Dont let this opportunity pass, send us your subscription. If you do not want both, you can't afford to miss the AD-

VERTISER

DR. E. C. WELLBORN DENTIST

Small Profits and Volume Of Business Makes It Possible to get Dental Work done in my Office Promptly and Well at the LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE.

All Work Guaranteed

Mother's Cook Book

"A fig tree looking on a fig tree becomes fruitful," says the Arabian proverb. And so it is with children; their first instructor is example.

EVERYDAY GOOD THINGS

NOW is the time to go forth and pluck the early watercress, the wholesome dandelion, the dock and poke, the new shoots of milkweed and marsh marigold or cowslips, all giving the needed zest to the food of spring.

Fresh Dandelion Salad.

Those who appreciate the value of the tender bleached heart of dandelion like it with a bit of salt without any dressing. For a salad the bleached leaves are best, but the tender green shoots, cut and mixed with a small green onion and served with French dressing is a salad not to be despised. Cut the dandelion close to the root, with all the tender green buds. Wash carefully and slice the root from the base, buds and tender leaves for an inch above the root. These use for a fresh salad; the rest of the leaves may be cooked for greens. Another addition to this salad is a thinly sliced tomato, which adds a bit of acid and softens the bitter of the dandelion. Using mayonnaise on the fresh green dandelion is another appetizing method of serving it.

Cooked Dandelion Salad.

Cook the greens until tender, which will take two hours or more unless the greens are very young, then serve with the following salad dressing: Rub a small bowl with a cut clove of garlic, add one-half of a teaspoonful of salt, a few dashes of paprika, two tablespoonfuls of orange juice and four to five tablespoonfuls of olive oil. Whip this dressing until it is creamy, then serve on the cooked dandelions.

Pigweed or Lamb's Quarter.

This is a good wholesome green and common enough to be generally well known as a weed, but not well known as a good food. Pull it up by the roots and strip off the green leaves, as the stalk is generally too tough to serve. Cook with pork or corned beef and serve hot.

Parasite is another good green, which grows in profusion. Pick the leaves and stalks, shake well and wash, then cook as any other greens.

Horseradish, plantain and dandelion cooked together make a good flavored combination. Yellow dock when young and tender is good.

Cowslips are delicious when well cooked and seasoned. They are easy to clean and do not shrink as do the dandelions when cooking. A half peck of tender dandelion greens will shrink when cooked to a small vegetable dish.

Mustard is grown for a green and makes a most tasty dish. The wild mustard is good, but the leaves are much smaller than those of the plant called Chinese mustard. A few leaves of the mustard cut in bits and added to the dish of lettuce improves it.

Watercress at this season is in its prime, fresh and green. It grows along the banks of brooks. One should use care in picking it where there is no fear of sewage contamination.

Silvey Moore

Mr. A Moore and Miss. Duvie Silvey were married Tuesday of this week, at the home of the bride's parents near Young Harris.

Rev. T. K. Jackson performed the ceremony.

They left this week for Hayesville where they will make their home.

The Advertiser extends its best wishes.

The Friendly Path

By Walter J. Robinson

EVERYONE MUST PAY

EVERYONE must pay for what he gets.

There is a law of recompense which cannot be evaded or ignored.

If one prizes his happiness he must expect to pay. Eventually the bill collector will demand his toll. Unless payment is made a rough pathway lies directly ahead.

Many constantly fear the bill collector who comes and demands money toll. But he is the most harmless of all the collectors. The real collector to be feared is the one which takes the form of conscience. It is impossible to dodge this one or to frighten him off with a double-barreled gun.

Those who imagine they have ended the collector when in the form of conscience are foolishly deluded. But even though they may get some enjoyment out of life because they think they have satisfied themselves that their consciences were wrong, they can always expect another collector which takes the form of law to bound them until the debt is paid.

In this age when many fathers and mothers are worried concerning the future of their children, there is good reason to impress upon the young people the importance of being on the square—on the square with the world as well as with themselves. Too many start into their world's pathways bent on getting as much as they can—both in material value and pleasure—without paying for its worth. If parents allow boys and girls, when their characters are in the making, to get this false impression of the way best to get on, sorry days are likely to be ahead not alone for the sons and daughters and their children, but for the fathers and mothers as well.

"The law of compensation is inexorable."

(Copyright.)

A tonic that invigorates both old and young. For weak, nervous, men and women. Every bottle guaranteed. Get it TO-DAY.

LOCAL COLUMN Cyclone Bill Gives Parody on Grand Jury Charge

Superior Court is in session at Hiawassee this week.

Mr. J. W. Ray is spending the week end in Macon this week.

Mr. Frank Erwin Jr. of the University of Georgia, was a visitor in Young Harris this week.

PIGGS For Sale. Write Frank Duckworth. Blairsville, Ga R 2

Mr. Herbert Tabor of Gainesville, was in Young Harris this week.

LUMBER for SALE All kinds All sizes.

E. G. Firkins, Woodsgrove, Ga.

Col. C. S. Reid, of Gainesville was attending court at Hiawassee this week. He was also in Young Harris on business.

See the Advertiser for any kind of printing. We have a complete stock of stationery, and we guarantee our work be satisfactory.

If you want any of the popular magazines. Call at W. E. Mathewson's.

Prof. J. L. Hall, former president of Young Harris College, was in town a short time Tuesday.

Mr. John Silvey and family of Canton, N. C., who have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Silvey, for the past week, returned to their home Tuesday.

Mr. Jennings Caldwell has purchased the first 1923 model Ford we have seen in Young Harris, and we notice many improvements over the old models.

Tom Jinkings of Young Harris shipped several good dogs this week, to parties in South Georgia. If you need good dogs, write him and he will furnish you.

Mr. T. C. Miller, editor of the North Georgia News, at Blairsville, was in to see us Monday, on his way to attend court at Hiawassee. Mr. Singleton editor of The Tri-County Advertiser, located at Clarkeville, was also a visitor at Hiawassee Court.

Garnett Thomas, who has been sick for some time, with milk-sick, is improving. Doc Thomas also a victim of milk sick, and who has been very sick, is also improving.

Mr. W. E. Matheson spent the later part of the week in Atlanta on business, he will be accompanied home by Mrs. Matheson, who has been visiting in Atlanta for several days.

Three forestry students from the University of Georgia, are here working in connection with Mr. B. H. Stone, in patrol work and forest protection on the Vogel lands. These men Messrs. Duggan, Ogden and Quinn, are receiving vocational training, and get credit for this practical forestry on their courses at Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hardy and sister, Miss Ruby Hardy, of Gainesville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stephens this week. They will return to their home the latter part of this week, via Hiawassee, Clayton and Tallulah Falls.

Mr. Jasper Dyer moved to his home near Murphy this week. He has been a citizen of this place for a number of years, and Young Harris will miss him and his family.

Mr. DuPre Miller, who has purchased the Dyer home here has removed his family from Choestoe to occupy his new home. Young Harris is fortunate in having such people as citizens of our town.

Court at Hiawassee is over, and everybody went away happy.

The following is a parody on the judge's charge to the grand jury of Towns County, state of Georgia: According to statute R.F.D. No. 1. No citizen will be allowed to carry a pistol, if said pistol, should be a self-cocker, any citizen will be allowed by law to carry a pistol, provided said pistol is a thumb cocker, and if said pistol should accidentally go off, it will be required by law to come back next day.

Statute C.O.D.—Any citizen being intoxicated will in no-wise violate the prohibition law, while walking the public highway, provided said citizen will blow his nose at all quick curves of said road. Said citizen, will not be allowed at anytime while traveling said road, to violate the law of gravity.

No citizen according to the law of said state will be allowed to take a drink, unless said citizen is by himself, or with somebody. Any citizen, regardless of his political influence, or social standing, will only be allowed to take one drink with a friend; but said citizen, will be allowed by law to have a multitude of friends.

Any citizen being intoxicated and having a tendency to bawl like a calf, or bray like a jackass will be required by law to stay in the woods, provided said person will not gnaw the sour-wood saplings, of said woods. Said person, will be allowed to go home while in a state of intoxication, and abuse his own wife and children, in case the head of said person is frying pan, coffee pot, broom and rolling pin proof.

Any citizen under the influence of jazz drops, will be compelled by law to wear a bat-wing tie on the north end of his shirt, keeping the south end of said shirt concealed in the pants of said person.

No, so called, good citizen shall be allowed to squirt ambear in the ears of the Judge or Solicitor General while trying to whisper some dirty, stinking, rotten criminal out of some low-down, dirty stinking hog faced, rotten, hell-warped crime.

No lawyer regardless of how smart he may be, will not be allowed to stamp his foot on the floor while making his speech; as said stamp will have a tendency to wake up the members of said jury.

Statute No. 3—Longitude O, and Latitude K: No citizen will be allowed to go to church while in a prayerful attitude. Said person will not be allowed to wear shoes, provided said shoes squeak like a new saddle, said person will not be allowed to wonder around in slumber-land, or consult napper while said preacher is taking a free will offering.

Any citizen of the male sex, who has through a mistake purchased dog licence instead of marriage license, and is living a dog's life on account of said marriage vows, will be allowed a divorce from his wife, provided said wife eats onions, snores in her sleep, dump snuff in her lower lip, or make goo-goo eyes at any lawyer, merchant or section hand in the community, city or village where said unhappy couple resides.

Judge Jones reached the climax by saying, "any person who sells intoxicating liquors to any student or students, in his circuit will be sent by him to the chingang" Burrah! for the Judge.

After performing my legal duty, I will not have time to give other happenings at this writing.

Something to Think About

By F. A. WALKER

WHO WANTS TO KNOW

IF YOU are sincere in your desire to know how to achieve, how to make yourself worthy of the highest confidence and thus become competent to hold a place above the ordinary, you will lose no time in acquiring the necessary knowledge.

You will not waste a single hour in idleness or unproductive effort, the basic cause of disappointments and failure.

You will go to your task seriously with unyielding determination to win. In your pursuit, which in a little while will have become an exhilarating pleasure, you will discover that all the men and women who are holding the prominent places did in the beginning of their careers just what you are doing.

They squandered no time in the foolish chase of rainbows, choosing instead the companionship of wise counsellors and the perusal in their spare time of instructive books, seeking truths and principles upon which they could build a substantial foundation for the erection of their life-work.

They tossed the chaff to the winds and stored with utmost prudence the golden grain.

The greatest men of today, the conspicuous leaders in the professions, the arts and the crafts, struggled hard in their youth to get a foothold upon the hills. They knew what they were seeking and never relinquished their high purpose or slackened their pace, though they often slipped and went to bed hungry.

Their experiences with the world gave them an understanding of men and affairs with a fullness impossible otherwise.

Their present wealth, power and influence are envied by the thoughtless, who sneeringly talk among themselves of "chance" and "luck," those misnomers for work and pluck.

Being envied is a high distinction. And this is especially true when it is obvious that the real cause of envy is based on the admitted ignorance and regret of men and women who covet distinction but invariably lack courage to take a place in the front and bear the brunt of battle.

The youths of the present who want to know, who are brushing aside obstacles, who are exerting every effort to learn, will in the future be found among the foremost workers and thinkers in the world's great activities, simply because they have with their resolute hearts the spirit and faith without which no man or woman can hope to win a glorious name.

(Copyright.)

Published every Friday at YOUNG HARRIS, GEORGIA

W. J. WELLBORN Editor.

Subscription Rates in Advance One Year $1.00 Six Months .50 Three Months .25

Advertising Rates Upon Request

Be sure and read Cyclone Bill's parody on the Judge's charge to the grand jury. In this issue.

An effort is being made by some of the citizens of our county to have the law enforced more strictly prohibiting all saw mill men to keep saw dust out of the streams.

Saw dust in the streams poisons all the fish, and makes the water black, and has such an odor that stock will not drink it.

The Government has stocked our streams many times, and the fish have never gotten grown that were put in there, they have been seined out, shot out and killed by saw dust.

A man that would kill fish with dynamite is not a sport, and a sport would not drag them out and kill the small ones by seining.

It is a violation of the law to do either, and what we need is for everybody to take a hand in the protection of our game, and see that the law is enforced as to their protection.

We have streams in our mountains that would bring hundreds of visitors into our country, and afford the citizens here much more pleasure if our game laws were enforced, and let them be stocked and then protect them.

The Blairsville revenue officers were over in Lumpkin last week, making two sets of officers that were raiding in the county at the same time, destroying several stills. The Savannah officials at the last of the week stepped over into Dawson and got two more.

Both sets of these officials paid a visit but the Blairsville officers got there a day a head of the others. We understand that a right nice sum is paid informers.

This together with the trouble the liquor is bringing about is going to cause a lot more to be "turned up" and our advice to those engaged in the business is to stop it before they get into trouble and maybe lose their land and homes and spend the rest of their days in want and distress and maybe leave this world a pauper. We can mention men who once enjoyed peace and plenty for long years, but kept handling liquor until it broke them up and they died penniless.

The Dalton Nugget.

We Do Job Printing

Let us do your job work. Special attention given all orders. We work hard to please our costumers. We appreciate your business.

Advertise in the Advertiser

11 one-eleven cigarettes

10 for FIFTEEN

In a new package that fits the pocket—At a price that fits the pocket-book—The same unmatched blend of TURKISH, VIRGINIA and BURLEY Tobaccos

The American Tobacco Company

★ 111 FIFTH AVE. NEW YORK CITY